

Front-end Requirements:

1: User-friendly interface for my marketplace.

2: A design that works well on both small and large devices.

3: Essential Pages:

- Home Page
- Car Detail Page
- Payment Page
- categories (need to change the name of page from '/category')
- User Dashboard (need to change the name of page from '/admin-dashboard')
- Car Booking Page (to be added)
- Track your booking (to be added)
- Booking history (to be added)
- Booking Confirmed (to be added)
- Login Page (to be added)
- Register page (to be added)

Overview of each essential page:

Home page:

The main page in which all cars with different categories. All cars' short details has been showed on Home page.

Car Detail Page:

Where I will display all the description of that specific car.

Payment Page:

Where user pay their payment and also give a deposit.

Categories:

Where user can filter out the cars by specific category.

User dashboard:

Where user find there booking details, track their booking, check their booking history etc.

Car Booking Page:

Where user select or set the booking duration and details.

Track your booking:

Where user track their booking like how many days will the booked car ship to the user/consumer.

Booking history:

Where the user can check their booking history means what booking he did in the past.

Booking Confirmation Page:

Where the user will get a message of confirmation of booking and will get his tracking ID.

Signup:

Where the user can signup themselves.

Login:

Where the user can log in.